ANNOUNCEMENT FOR THE AWARD OF A RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

Research Fellowship (1 vacancy)

(Ref.: CEHUM-BI-10-2024)

A call for applications is now open for the attribution of 1 (one) grant for master's degree students within the scope of the R&D Strategic project Centre for Humanistic Studies of the University of Minho - CEHUM, reference UIDB/00305/2020, financed by national funds through FCT/MCTES (PIDDAC), under the following conditions:

Scientific Area: Language Sciences.

Recipient category: Master's degree students in the scientific area indicated

Requirement for granting the fellowship:

- The applicants may apply without prior registration in the course for which the fellowship is open. The requirement to enrol in a degree course will be verified on the date of contracting the fellowship;
- Only fellowships whose selected applicants present a valid proof of enrolment in a degree course or non-academic degree course will be contracted, according to the type of the fellowship, issued by the academic services of the Higher Education Institution, indicating, respectively, the academic year or its duration (start and term).
- Applications will only be considered if, by the date of the competition, the applicant has a grade point average of 16 or above.

Candidates profile:

Applicants must have knowledge of Syntax at an advanced level (at least two masters course units in Syntax) and exhibit familiarity with Binding Theory and the notions of logophoricity and antilogophoricity.

Applicants eligibility: Applicants must comply with the eligibility conditions laid down in article 9 of the Research Grants Regulation of the Portuguese Foundation for Science and Technology (2019).

Workplan and objectives to be achieved:

The work plan is in the field of Syntax and aims to test the hypothesis that direct objects without lexical realization in Portuguese have properties in common with nominal anaphors, such as epithets. In particular, they are antilogophoric anaphors. The project will seek to verify whether the effects of antilogophoricity are detectable in the real-time processing of EP sentences.

The work plan includes

- a) The design and application of a self-monitored reading task to 40 native speakers of European Portuguese. This research technique tests language processing in real time. Participants read sentences segment by segment and it is possible to record the elapsed time (reaction time; RT) for each segment read.
- b) Statistical processing of the results obtained
- c) Writing a report on the work carried out.
- d) The work produced by the scholarship holder will always be monitored by the project coordinator, who will evaluate not only their performance in carrying out the experimental task, but also the final report.

Applicable legislation and regulations: Research Fellowship Holder Statutes, approved by Law no. 40/2004 of August 18, in its current version published by Decree-Law no. 123/2019 of August 28; Regulation of Scientific Research Fellowships of the University of Minho (RBIC), published in “Diário da República”, 2nd serie, no. 119, through dispatch no. 6524/2020 of 22-06-2020, ratified by ratification declaration no. 447/2021 of 22-06-2021 and Regulation of Research Studentships and Fellowships (RBI) of the Foundation for Science and Technology, I.P.

Host/Contracting institution and scientific supervision: The workplan will be carried out at the Centre for Humanistic Studies of the University of Minho, School of Arts and Humanities, located on the Campus of Gualtar, under the scientific supervision of Professor Pilar Barbosa.

Fellowship duration: The grant will take place for a period of 6 months, with a provisional starting date in June of 2024.

Amount of the research grant: The value stipend (Monthly Maintenance Allowance) is 990,98 euros per month, in accordance with the stipend values published by the Foundation for Science and Technology (FCT I.P.) in the country (Annex I – Monthly Stipends Values for the maintenance allowances of the FCT Regulation for Research Studentships and Fellowships) and Annex II of the Regulation of Scientific Research Fellowships of the University of Minho (RBIC), published in “Diário da República”, 2nd serie, no. 119, through dispatch no. 6524/2020 of 22-06-2020, ratified by ratification declaration no. 447/2021 of 22-06-2021, according to the applicable regulation.

Payment is made on the 23rd of each month through bank transfer to the Bank Identification Number of the fellow identified in the contractualization process.

Other benefits: Reimbursement of Voluntary Social Security (Social Security contributions), corresponding to the 1st level of contribution and personal accident insurance.

Exclusivity regime: The grantee will perform the activities under exclusivity, as foreseen in article 5º of the Research Fellow Statutes and applicable regulations.

Criteria and procedures for applications assessment and selection: The applications assessment will focus on the candidate's Merit, following evaluation criteria, valued on a scale of 1 to 20 values:

Applicant Merit - AM (100%):

- a) Academic path (considering the classifications of academic degrees), with a weighting of 50%;
- b) Personal curriculum (considering professional and scientific background), with a weighting of 40%
- c) Motivation letter, with a weighting of 10%.

The final classification of the applicant's merit will be calculated using the following formula:

$$MC=(a\times 0,5) + (b\times 0,4) + (c\times 0,1)$$

The documents related to academic degrees and diplomas, or their respective recognition when awarded by foreign higher education institutions are not mandatory in the application phase, being replaced by a declaration of honor of the candidate with the contents of academic results. The documents of academic qualification or respective recognition will be required in the contracting phase and must attest facts that occurred on a date prior to the application. In situations of divergence between the information contained in the declaration and the documentation submitted for contracting the grant, only the information contained in the latter will be considered. If the documents proving the ownership of the academic degree and diploma, or the respective recognition under the terms of Decree-Law No. 66/2018, of August 16, do not correspond to the classifications awarded in the evaluation of the academic path, which can change the candidate's ranking, the fellowship won't be contracted.
